

Tyler Livingston Basketball Academy

Hosted by The Mill Works

The Mill Works is pleased to announce that we have teamed up with former University of Massachusetts-Lowell standout and current overseas professional basketball player, Tyler Livingston, to run The Mill Works Basketball Academy. Boys and girls of all skill levels and age groups will learn and improve their game from an extremely skillful Coach, Tyler Livingston.

When Do Classes Start?

Skill Development - January 2nd - February 12, 2019 5:00 pm

Shooting Program - January 2nd - February 12, 2019 5:00 pm to 8:00 -pm

What do I Need to Bring?

Bring your personal basketball, water to keep hydrated throughout training, and the desire to improve.

How to Choose a Class?

Looking for a place to improve all areas of your skill set?

- Skill Development Class is the perfect choice for you. The Focus is on: dribbling, passing, and shooting drills.
- Shooting Program Learn the art of shooting a basketball from one of the best shooters in the nation. This six week shooting program is what you are looking for.
- One on One Tyler will design an individual workout with you to focus on your game. Contact Tyler: tlivtraining24@yahoo.com

Who should I contact for Questions?

After visiting our website at millworkswestford.com and looking through the classes, feel free to send any questions, comments, or concerns directly to Tyler Livingston at tlivtraining24@yahoo.com.

The Mill Works